This final chapter of Luke briefly summarizes astonishment & perplexity of finding the empty tomb, giving the experience of the Galilean women Luke 24:1-12, then giving a full, vivid account of an appearance of Christ to the disciples on the road to Emmaus Luke 24:13-35. Luke then recounted the appearance of Jesus to the Eleven & those that were with them, including the disciples returned from Emmaus Luke 24:36-43, concluding with a summary statement of Jesus' last words & a brief account of the ascension Luke 24:44-53.

The Gospels ALL say: Jesus of Nazareth is, was, & ever shall be a supernatural Person, performed greatest wonders ever seen on earth, raised dead to life again, gave himself to die to redeem people from sin, was crucified & buried in tomb of Joseph of Arimathea, rose from dead on third day, repeatedly appeared to his own group in his resurrection body, commanded gospel of salvation to be proclaimed to all people, ascended to God & all power in heaven & earth belongs to him, is one with Almighty God, alone can redeem human beings from the curse of sin, shall judge all people on the last day, is now enthroned with God in heaven, loves & cares for his spiritual body, the church; is the Christ promised in the Old Testament, his alone is the name through which people ought to pray, is Lord and Saviour, should be worshipped as the Father in heaven is worshipped, the fate of every soul ever born on earth hinges on that soul's relationship with Jesus Christ.
